DAVIS THEATRE.

Complete Change of Photoplays-Three Big Features-Keith Vaude-

In addition to the big Keith vaudeville act, Captain Kidder & Co., who are making a big hit with their beautiful singing sketch, there will be a complete change of photoplays at the Davis today, and there will be three two-reel features shown. The sixth chapter of The Diamond from the Sky will be the headling attraction in the pictures, and this chapter is called Shadows at Sunrise. The following is a brief synopsis of this week's in-

Hagar, the gypsy mother, leases Stanley hall, intent on restoring to a Esther her birthright, Esther immedi-T ately becomes a social favorite. Then comes the great Fairfax tournament. Arthur Stanley as John Powell works as a farmhand learns of the approach-ing event. He borrows his employer's thoroughbred horse and, wearing a black silken mask to hide his fea-tures, he returns to ride in the races. The masked rider wins highest honors and crowns Esther "queen of love and beauty." Vivian Marston and Mrs. Stanley ignore the honor bestowed on Hagar's daughter. Then Blair Stanley, in bitter chagrin, betrays Arthur, whom he recognized. In a moment all is confusion. "He is Arthur Stanley, wanted for the murder of old Dr. Lee," is heard on every side as Arthur struggles madly with his captors. The surn of $10,000 is offered for the most suitable suggestion for a sequel to this marvelous photoplay. this marvelous photoplay.

The Floating Death is a powerful two reel K. E. drams, and there will also be a special two reel Keystone comedy called Dirty Work in a Laundry, with Ford Starling featured. This is one of the funniest of these popular two reel comedies and Ford power. two reel comedies and Ford never made more laughs in all his life than he does in this picture.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Eastland Disaster Pictures to Be Shown Today.

The first authentic pictures of the terrible Eastland boat disaster which took place at the docks in Chicago a week ago last Saturday and in which nearly one thousand lives were lost, will be shown here at all three shows today only. It is a very vivid pic-ture, taken at close range, and im-mediately after the boat capsized. It is rather on the sensational order with many hair raising scenes, and gives one an excellent idea of just what happened during the first hour after the ill-fated Eastland turned over. Be-sides this special picture, a strong Paramount feature will be shown in five wonderful reels when Dustin Far-num will be seen in Cameo Kirby, made by Jesse Lasky as the result of a special arrangement between him-self and the Liebler company, Mr. Farnum's tremendous success in The Virginian, and The Squaw Man, is known to all exhibitors, and has brought joy to millions of photopiay The management has no hes-in vouching for Cameo Kirby as being of equal or even superior

The fifth episode of the Broken Coin, with Grace Cunard and Francis Ford, and the second of the famous Para-mount Travel pictures taking you on a trip through St. Augustine, Fla., Kingston Harbor, where the little ne-gro boys dive for coins, Pelican Island, Daytona and several other places in the peninsula state will also be shown. The show at the Auditorium for today and tomorrow will be without doubt one of the best picture shows

COLONIAL THEATRE. Broadway Star Feature, "The Esterbrook Case"—Cissy Fitzgerald.

A darkened sleeping room, heavy door draperies through which is thrust a gleaming knife blade, and Howard Esterbrook's body fallen to the floor, is the condition that confronts the maid who is attempting to gain entrance to the room, which this weekend guest has been occupying. Baffling as the slimsy clues are, everything is done to unrayed the mystery. thing is done to unravel the mystery, and the many guests assembled for one of the season's most brilliant so-clal functions are horrified. The outcome of this powerful case is best told in todays mammoth Broadway ine Road O'Strife by the fluing some and search by the fluing some and search by the fluing of the exports of watches alone who were some should see the other scamers men who were some should see the country of the c Starfeature by the big Vitagraph cast. 1 1347 A CHIC COAT FOR COOL DAYS. Child's Coat, With Yoke, and Sleeve

With Shirring or With Cuff Einish. This style was attractively developed in white gabardine with pipings of black satin. It would also develop well in sand colored gabardine, and is smart for taffeta, black satin, broadcloth, plque, serge or popin. The yoke is shaped and laps in front at low neck opening. The neck is finished with rolling collar. The sleeve may have a straight band cuff or the cuff with points arranged over the band finish, or it may be shirred in quaint and becoming style, especially good for soft fabrics. The pattern is cut in four sizes; 1.2, 4 and 6 years. It requires 2.1-4 yards-of 35-inch material for-a 4 year size.
